

A Catholic Spirituality Network Day

LOVE BADE ME WELCOME:

Praying with Paintings and Poetry

Saturday October 14th 2017, 10am- 4pm

At the Kairos Centre, Mount Angelus Rd

Roehampton, London SW15 4JA

In recent times, Sieger Köder painted many prayerful and thought-provoking images during his time as a parish priest. In the 17th century, George Herbert's own pastoral experience, in a remote parish near Salisbury, leaves us with his well-known poem describing God's invitation. The day will use these ideas as a launch-pad to reflect on our own prayer and experience. There will be input and time and space for personal prayer.

Magdalen Lawler is a Sister of Notre Dame who has worked for many years in retreats and spiritual direction. She is the author of Love bade me Welcome, Christ our Morning Star and Show us the Father- all published by Pauline Media UK

To book, contact: catholicspiritualitynetwork@gmail.com